

Hellenic Film Society Presents Special Screening of Mega Hit
KAPODISTRIAS
at the Museum of the Moving Image -- Friday, June 5 at 7pm

The Hellenic Film Society (HFS) in association with the Museum of the Moving Image (MoMI) will present a special screening of Kapodistrias (The Governor) on Friday, June 5, 7 pm, at MoMI.

Directed by Yannis Smaragdis, the epic film chronicles the life story of the noted European statesman and visionary leader, Ioannis Kapodistrias, who became the first Governor of modern Greece. The film will be shown in Greek with English subtitles.

"This is the film that everyone has been asking to see," said HFS President Maria Miles. "It broke box office records in Greece and had successful one-night screenings throughout the US last April. We are happy that the film's distributor is allowing us to bring it back to New York, even for only one screening, for those who want to see it again or enjoy it for the first time."

MoMI is located at 37-01 35th Avenue, in Astoria. Demand for tickets is expected to be high, and viewers are urged to make their purchases in advance by visiting www.hellenicfilmsociety.org

About the Hellenic Film Society

The Hellenic Film Society is a 501c(3) non-profit all-volunteer organization dedicated to promoting Greek cinema in the US. In addition to the Always On Sunday series of screenings at the Museum of the Moving Image, it presents the New York Greek Film Expo annually in October, a Greek film festival for all New Yorkers. HFS also partners with other prominent film festivals, including the Atlanta Greek Film Expo, the Chicago Greek Film Expo, and the South Florida Greek Film Festival.

The Kallinikeion Foundation and the Stavros Niarchos Foundation (SNF) are the principal funders of HFS. Additional support is provided by New York State Council on the Arts, New York City Council, New York City Tourism Organization, Microsoft, Greek National Tourist Organization, Queens Borough President Donovan Richards, and Antenna Satellite TV.

The Hellenic Film Society presents special screening of the mega hit Kapodistrias on Friday, June 5 at 7pm at the Museum of the Moving Image in Astoria, NY. The film is in Greek with English subtitles. For tickets and information, visit www.hellenicfilmsociety.org.